Acknowledgement

Mornington Peninsula Shire acknowledges the Bunurong people, who have been the custodians of this land for many thousands of years; and pays respect to their Elders past and present. We acknowledge that the land on which we meet is the place of age-old ceremonies, celebrations, initiation, and renewal; and that the Bunurong people's living culture continues to have a unique role in the life of this region.

I am going to visit Rosebud Library.

When I arrive, I might see bookshelves and people.

I might hear children in the library and activities taking place.

I will see people who work at the library.

They are called library staff.

They wear lanyards and name tags.

There are lots of things to do at the library.

I might see books or DVD's that I like.

There are computers in the library that I can use.

There are different computer areas for adults, young people and children.

I will try to wear headphones while I watch videos or play games on the computer.

This is a good idea so I do not disturb other computer users.

Headphones are available to borrow from the information desk.

There are free programs, events and activities for people of all ages at the library.

I can go online to learn more.

There is a Special Collections room.

The Special Collections room is a place to research local and family history.

There are toilets that I can use at the library.

A library staff member can show me where the toilets are.

Lots of people like to go to Rosebud Library.

Rosebud Library may be busy.

That is okay.

Sometimes the sounds in Rosebud Library might be too loud for me.

I can wear my headphones to help with the noise.

Rosebud Library staff are available to help.

Sometimes I might need to wait to speak to staff. If waiting is hard,

I can try to count numbers in my head while I am waiting for my turn.

There are items like books and DVDs at the library that I can take home and return.

When I borrow something from the library, I must also return it.

This is called borrowing.

I need to bring my library card if I want to borrow something.

I can use a self-serve kiosk to borrow.

Library staff can show me how to use the self-serve kiosk.

Rosebud Library is a great place to learn new things and meet new people.

Library staff will feel happy if I say thank you and goodbye to them before I leave.
